SWITCHMEN STRIKE.

A Complete Tie-Up of All Freight Trains.

SEVERAL ROADS AFFECTED.

The Lake Erie and Western Not Moving a Single Freight Car and Millions of Bushels of Wheat Along the Line Awaiting Transportation—The Strike Extending in All Directions and Likely to Become General.

PEORIA, Ills., Aug. 20.—A strike is in progress in this city by the switchmen employed by the Peoria and Pekin Union Railroad company, a line which is the terminal for the Big Four, the Jacksonville Southeastern, the Lake Erie and Western, the Peoria, Decatur and Evansville, the Terre Haute and Peoria and the Toledo. Peoria and Western roads, all of them being involved, or rather being discommoded by this strike.

The grievance is the general yardmaster, Mr. Bel, who has lately advanced a man in preference to some of the extras who have been working for the road. Only mail trains were allowed to leave the city until noon yesterday, when the passenger service was restored. Freight business is at a standstill, no trains being made up or going out of the yards. There is a great deal of perishable freight now on hand. The probabilities of a settlement are not good at the present time.

Not a Freight Wheel Turning.

FINDLAY, O., Aug. 20.—The strike on the Lake Erie and Western railroad, which now affects the whole freight system of 288 miles, is still on and from present indications it will be some time before the matter is adjusted. Not a freight wheel is turning, while millions of bushels of wheat all along the line are awaiting shipment. Besides hundreds of cars of perishable freight are scattered over the entire length of the road from Peoria, Ills., to Sandusky. There is no trouble with any of the men at any of the points as yet, but if the company attempts to supply the places of the strikers with new men serious results are apprehended.

Not Yet Reached Fort Wayne.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 20.—The strike of the trainmen on the Lake Erie and Western road has not yet spread to this city. All trains went out with full crews this morning. If the strike is not settled by tomorrow it is almost certain that the men here will go out in sympathy with the strikers.

OUR TREATY WITH SPAIN.

Will Existing Treaties with Great Britain Affect It Any?

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The dispatches from Halifax regarding the effect of the treaty between Great Britain and Spain, with the opinion of the colonial office that it will have the effect of nullifying for two years the effect of the reciprocity treaty negotiated with Spain by Secretary Blaine, has caused considerable comment among statesmen and political circles in this city.

Hon. John W. Foster, ex-minister to Spain, through whom the treaty was negotiated, was seen at the Fifth Avenue hotel and said that he had read the dispatch, which only reflects an opinion. Considering his connection with the matter, however, and the fact that it will doubtless be made the subject of diplomatic correspondence, it would hardly be good taste for him to forestall the possible action of the authorities at Washington. He would say, nevertheless, that he emphatically dissented from the opinion given out by the colonial office and believed that the treaty would be of great value in developing our commercial relations with Spain and her possessions.

SEE AGAIN.

The Columbus Grove Bandit Steals Another Horse.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Aug. 20.—That the Columbus Grove bandit has been in this county, is strongly believed by officials here. Monday night a fine mare was stolen from the barn of Henry Gottfried, of Salem township.

There was positive evidence that the animal was stolen. Yesterday morning the horse showed up at its home. It was covered with perspiration, was dusty, and from the amount of lathering it had undergone must have traveled a great distance.

Saturday the Columbus Grove fugitive was seen between here and Kenton, and it is quite probable that he appeared in this county Monday night, stole the horse and used it till yesterday morning to increase the distance between him and the scene of his crime.

Tramp Injured.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—Robert Cunningham, a tramp, was knocked from the top of a Big Four passenger coach at the Noble street bridge at midnight Tuesday night. He is resting easily now at the city hospital. His injuries are not considered specially alarming by the physicians, though he is a badly injured man. This noble street death trap has been a bridge of sighs for many an unhappy mortal. Nobody makes any move to right it, though a man is killed there every few months with appalling regularity.

Deacon Fined for Assaulting a Minister.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 20.—Deacon Charles Foster, charged with assault and battery, his victim being Rev. William F. Hill, of Enon Methodist church, was fined $5 and costs. Hill is still suffering from his injuries, including the loss of four teeth. The two men were heads of factions and fought over a donation of $600. The church members hold up their hands in horror over the affair.

DOINGS ABROAD.

Crisis in the German Cabinet—Other Cable Dispatches.

BERLIN, Aug. 20.—Dr. Miguel, imperial minister of finance, has petitioned the emperor to suspend the corn duties for three months. Chancellor Von Caprivi previously had declined to discuss the question with Dr. Miguel.

The latter's direct appeal to the kaiser is expected to bring the differences between Caprivi and Miguel to a crisis, and may effect the solidity of the cabinet.

The Tagblatt says that the kaiser is annoyed with Chancellor Von Caprivi for having stated in June in the landtag that Germany had nothing to fear from the failure of the Russian rye crop.

Patti Probably Afraid of Water.

SWANSEA, Aug. 20.—The storm which interfered with Tuesday's proceedings in the eisteddfod continued yesterday. The canvas covering the pavilion, which was hurriedly replaced after it had been wrecked by a cloudburst Tuesday, collapsed again yesterday, and the audience were again drenched.

Mme. Patti, who had agreed to sing at the festival, has telegraphed asking to be excused from appearing.

No Danger of Dying Yet.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Ex-Senator Warner Miller, who has been confined to his room at Brown's hotel in this city since Thursday last, by an attack of muscular rheumatism, went out for a drive yesterday with his wife and daughter. The ex-senator and his family start within a week for Windermere lake, the finest of the English lakes, from which locality they will go to the Scotch lakes.

Tributes to James Russell Lowell.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Tributes to the late James Russell Lowell continue to appear in the press, both daily and weekly. Minister Lincoln is informed that Lord Salisbury intended to have a representative present at the service in Westminster abbey, but the change of program to Saturday instead of Sunday frustrated his wish.

The Emperor and Empress at Kiel.

KIEL, Aug. 20.—Chancellor Von Caprivi conferred with the emperor yesterday aboard the imperial yacht Hohenzollern. The emperor and empress landed in the evening and attended a banquet at the castle given in honor of the birthday of Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria-Hungary.

Ten Men Killed and Forty Injured.

BERLIN, Aug. 20.—A horrible accident is reported from Nordenhamm, Oldenburg. A scaffold on which a large number of men were working collapsed, dragging with it in its fall a lower scaffold, with more men. Ten men were killed and forty seriously injured.

STORM IN INDIANA.

Considerable Damage Done at Indianapolis and Vicinity.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—A terrible storm of rain and lightning prevailed here yesterday, the city being flooded, and in many cases business houses and dwellings being surrounded by water and the contents of cellars badly damaged.

Charles Lynn, L. M. Kimberlain and John Blackwell, were badly shocked at Olsen's machine shop, and for a time it was thought that Lynn had been killed. Several other employees were also shocked, but not so sensibly.

Joseph Maudlin, a pressman, was knocked senseless at the corner of New York street, but is in a fair way to recover.

Pogue's run, which passes through the city from northwest to southeast, was soon out of its banks, and the business houses along its course for a square away were soon surrounded and the cellars full of water. The stream is very treacherous, and during the afternoon Fred King and Oliver Eckel, two lads about ten years old, were drawn into a sewer by the flood and drowned. In the northeast part of the city hundreds of houses were entirely surrounded by water and some of the streets were covered to a depth of four feet.

Reports from the surrounding country show that the storm was general throughout the central part of the state.

Storm on the Mexican Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—The steamer Newbern has arrived from Mexican ports. Her officers report that a severe storm was encountered in the Gulf of California and along the Mexican coast, on Aug. 7. The Newbern, which was at Mazatlan at the time, was, together with several other vessels, obliged to put to sea.

Whiteley's New Scheme.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 20.—William N. Whiteley, the quondam reaper king, who built the largest shops in the United States and then failed, won't down. He and the wealthy Snyders, living just west of the city, are arranging to build shops on the old St. John sewing machine factory site for the manufacture of improved Whiteley machinery. One thousand acres of land, which the Snyders own, are to be utilized in furnishing timber, etc. Whiteley has, since his failure, been as tireless as usual, and in four years has taken out 150 patents. The new deal, the Snyders say, depends on the showing Whiteley makes.

Murdered His Wife While Drunk.

MT. GILEAD, O., Aug. 20.—Tuesday night A. L. Gano, more familiar known as "Ren" Gano, went to a dance at Westfield. Returning to his home at Fulton, seven miles south, about 2 o'clock, with a terrible jag on, he demanded admission to his wife's room, which she refused. He then broke in the door and tried to choke her. She evaded him and fled, but he caught up a shotgun and discharged the contents of both barrels into her body just below the heart, killing her. Gano was arrested and brought to Mt. Gilead.

IT WILL SOON BE DECIDED.

Indiana Bankers and Tax Commissioners Reach an Agreement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—The bankers of the state and the tax commissioners entered into an agreement yesterday by which three cases are to be taken at once to the supreme court to decide the question of the board's right to compel them to submit lists of depositors and sums on deposit in the banks April 1. The national banks will carry their case to the federal court, and the state and private banks will go into the state courts.

The bankers pledge themselves, if the courts decide against them to submit the required lists to the county auditors as the commission will then not be in existence, its forty days expiring before a decision can possibly be reached. In order to get a proper record, one banker representing each of the different classes of banks will be summoned before the commission and asked to produce the list of depositors. Upon refusal a fine will be imposed, and an appeal will follow.

At a meeting of the bankers yesterday V. T. Malott was selected to represent the national banks, P. C. Decker the state banks and Hugh Dougherty the private banks. The board spent the remainder of the day in hearing complaints regarding inequalities of land assessments in various counties.

Lived an Extravagant Life.

DURANGO, Colo., Aug. 20.—It is charged that Edward Lambert, Jr., bookkeeper of the San Juan Smelting and Mining company, is short $110,000 in his accounts. Lambert has $30,000 worth of real estate here and has for years been living extravagantly. Some months ago a detective was put in the office with Lambert and when he reported it was shown that Lambert had appropriated $110,000 of the company's money. Yesterday a warrant was sworn out for Lambert's arrest, but he got wind of it and left town. The sheriff is now close on his track. Lambert was also mayor of this city, having been elected last fall.

Let the Car Run Down Grade.

KANE, Pa., Aug. 20.—Two unknown young men took blocks of wood from in front of a freight car heavily loaded with bark on the top of a steep grade on the Campbell lumber railroad here yesterday. The car started down the grade at a terrific speed and plunged into a locomotive standing on the track at the foot of the grade, wrecking the engine and car. A. T. Bratt, fireman was crushed against the boiler and terribly mangled and died in the wreck. Engineer Dan Garvey, has his left leg crushed and was badly scalded by escaping steam. He was taken to the hospital where his leg was amputated. He will die.

Railway Postal Clerks' Convention.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 20.—A national convention of railway postal clerks is being held in this city. Delegates from nearly every prominent city in the country are present. The convention yesterday listened to addresses by Postmaster Harlow, Commissioner Murphy, and Secretary Morgan, of the Merchants' exchange. It is proposed to adopt a petition asking congress to grant an increase of salaries to railway postal clerks. Other questions for the betterment of the service will be discussed.

Two Women Suicide in Jail.

BUFFALO, Aug. 20.—Two women inmates of the jail committed suicide yesterday. Anna Gosoworska, who was committed on Aug. 17, supposed to be insane, was found hanging by a rope made from her clothing, and was dead when removed. Within a quarter of an hour afterwards, Mrs. Catharine Smith, committed on Aug. 4 for attempting to murder her deformed son, was also found dead, hanging by her skirt, which she had twisted into a rope.

Fired the Depot and Shot Himself.

CARON, Wyo., Aug. 20.—At 6:30 yesterday morning the Union Pacific depot, express and telegraph offices at this place were entirely destroyed by fire. The remains of John Crompton, the company's agent, with revolver lying near were found in the ruins. The loss to the road is $5,000. Crompton had been drinking hard for some time and it is thought that he set fire to the depot and then shot himself.

Fire Damages.

HUDSON, N. Y., Aug. 20.—The wholesale furniture warehouse of R. Gray & Son was damaged $13,000 by fire last night. The drugstore of Van Tassel & Tobey, adjoining, was damaged by water to a large extent. The total loss will probably reach $25,000; partly insured.

Three Children Drowned.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 20.—Three children of John Armitage, of Etowah county, were drowned in the creek yesterday. Willie, aged 9, while bathing, ventured beyond his depth. Two sisters, aged 10 and 15, hearing his cries, went to his rescue. All were drowned.

Garfield's Death Recalled.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The Elberon hotel at Elberon, N. J., including the Garfield cottage, where President Garfield died, was sold yesterday at auction for $82,000 to one of the trustees. The price at which the property was sold is said to be about half its actual value.

Ocean Record Again Broken.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The White Star steamship Teutonic, which arrived here yesterday from Liverpool, made the passage in 5 days and 10 minutes, which beats the record by 1 hour and 35 minutes.

After Delinquent Taxpayers.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 20.—United States Marshal Burchett and a posse have gone to Lyon county to collect a voted railroad tax which the people refuse to pay. Trouble is expected when the papers are served.

THERE IT STANDS

In Memory of a Glorious Battlefield.

A GREAT NATIONAL MONUMENT.

A Splendid Shaft Commemorating the Battle of Bennington Unveiled at Bennington, Vermont, Which Will Ever Shine Resplendent in History's Page. Erected a Hundred and Fourteen Years After the Day That Marked an Epoch in Our Country's Independence—The President and Other Distinguished Guests Present.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 20.—The ceremony of dedicating the monument erected to commemorate the Battle of Bennington crowded this little town to overflowing yesterday. The presence of the president of the United States and members of his cabinet, as well as the governors of three of the forty-four states, gave the event a more than local interest.

The apprehensions of rain entertained proved groundless and Bennington's great day dawned clear and beautiful, and at an early hour all was bustle and stir with the arriving of many thousands of visitors to join the thousands already here, the martial music of marching bodies and the hurrying of preparations for the parade. It seems as though the surrounding country for miles had emptied its entire population into the historic town. The decorations, so elaborate and beautiful, were spared the expected dampening and were the admiration and wonder of every rural eye.

Colonel W. Seward Webb, accompanied by a Grand Army post, escorted President Harrison from General McCullough's house to the soldiers' home, where Governor Page and all the living ex-governors of the state were waiting to greet him. The president alighted from his carriage and was escorted into the house, where he remained a short time while he was introduced to the distinguished guests. He then resumed his place in the carriage which with the other vehicles took their places in the line. At 9 o'clock the guns of Fuller's battery boomed the signal for the formation of divisions, and at 10:30 o'clock the procession moved with the Putnam phalanx of Hartford, the position of honor as escort to the president in the van, with a score of carriages following containing the distinguished guests.

The camp grounds, where the soldiers' home is situated and where the Vermont national guard has been in camp for several days, was filled with people when the procession moved. The president doffed his hat in salute to every manifestation of applause, and to keep the fierce rays of the sun from his head, Colonel Webb held an umbrella over him.

The procession, as it passed through the streets to the monument grounds, was viewed by thousands of people, the president and many features of the pageant received generous applause. The president left the line at the reviewing stand and the column passed before him. The procession continued its march to the massive and lofty pillar which will tell generations yet unborn of the patriotism of the Green Mountain Boys of 1777. Here the first division, except batteries, was massed on the west side of the monument; the second and third division, except carriages, on the east side. The batteries then took positions and fired a national salute of twenty-one guns.

Meantime the president and party, the orator of the day, Hon. Edward J. Phelps, Governor Page and other distinguished speakers and guests, with the representatives of the press about forty people in all, had taken their positions on the platform at the base of the monument. Around and about the open spaces were black with the multitudes, gathered from many states, to witness the ceremony of the dedication.

When all were in their places and quiet had been secured Hon. Wheelock G. Veazey, ex-commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, advanced to the front of the platform and addressed the vast concourse. Rev. Charles Parkhurst, D. D., of Boston, editor of The Zion Herald, then offered prayer, the assembled thousands assuming a reverent attitude during the delivery. At the conclusion of the prayer Governor C. S. Page was introduced and delivered the address of welcome.

The governor's remarks were handsomely applauded, and ex-Governor Prescott, of New Hampshire, president of Bennington Battle Monument association, was received with enthusiasm as he stepped forward to transfer the monument, the result of the association's many years of effort, to the care and keeping of the state.

Governor Page accepted the noble offering in a brief but appropriate speech. Music followed and the president of the day, General Veazey came forward leading the distinguished scholar, diplomat and orator Hon. Edward J. Phelps. A roar of applause greeted their appearance, and when the last murmur had died away Mr. Phelps delivered the oration of the day.

The oration was interrupted by frequent applause from the attentive audience. At its conclusion President Harrison was introduced. He made a brief extempore speech, after which there was a selection by the band and Rev. Charles Parkhurst pronounced the benediction. The procession then reformed in its original order and marched through Monument avenue, Main street and North street to Camp Vermont, where the troops were dismissed. Many of the other organizations had dropped out along the line of march.

The president and his escort were driven immediately to the large tent near the soldiers' home where a banquet completed the exercises of the day.

The banquet was held in a large tent on the grounds of the soldiers' home at 4 o'clock. Tables had been set for 3,500 persons, but they were insufficient to accommodate all who desired to participate in the festivities. There were probably 5,000 persons present when the banquet began.

A meeting of the representatives of the several state societies of the Sons of the American Revolution was held at the soldiers' home, at which the Hon.

E. B. Barrett, of Massachusetts, was elected president and L. L. Tarbell, of that state, secretary.

The display of fire works in the evening, given on the grounds of the soldiers' home, were very fine and were witnessed by immense crowds. A grand historical pageant of pictures, representing heroic scenes in Vermont's past history, was a notable feature of the display.

THE OFFICIAL VOTE.

With One Little Discrepancy in Floyd County, Here Are the Full Returns.

FRANKFORT, Ky., August 18.—The official vote is all in now with the exception of Floyd County on the Governor's race. That county reported for all other races and for the Constitution, but failed to include the vote for Governor. Excluding Floyd, the vote for Governor stands:

Brown	143,307
Wood	115,533
Harris	3,287
Erwin	25,448

Brown's plurality.....27,774

As the vote for Lieutenant Governor, as in the case of nearly all the counties, is about the same as that for Governor, it is safe to take the returns in that county for Lieutenant Governor and reckon them in with the other counties to find the total official vote for Governor. Floyd voted for Lieutenant Governor as follows: Alford, 998; Houston, 571; Winslow, 4, and Smith, 105; Alford's plurality, 427. Add these figures to the total of all the counties, and the vote for Governor will stand: Brown, 144,205; Wood, 116,104; Harris, 3,291, and Erwin, 25,553; Brown's plurality, 28,101.

On the Constitution the vote of all the counties stand as follows: For it, 212,920; against it, 74,581; majority for it, 138,339. The counties showing a majority against the Constitution are: Bell, Boone, Breathitt, Cumberland, Estill, Harlan, Lee, Leslie, Letcher, Lincoln, Nicholas, Pike and Russell—thirteen counties.

For Checker Players.

The checker item that appeared in the News last week was a mistake. There is no one in or around Paris who knows anything about checkers except myself, and I never heard of Robert T. Thomas, of Maysville, before in my life. However, I will play Mr. Thomas or anybody else for any reasonable amount. The game of checkers has a secret and when it becomes known one person can play as good as another and this beautiful science will become a dead letter. A game correctly played will end as a draw in 64 moves. I can show any man in five minutes how to play as good as any living person. It is done by the addition and subtraction of numbers from 1 to 32. I discovered this phenomenon after studying the game fourteen years. I told a noted player a few weeks ago there was a secret to checkers and was laughed at for my pains. He said he guessed I had gotten up something that would knock out the Wyllies and Barkers and Andersons, etc. There never yet was a man who got up something new who didn't have a set of fools to laugh at him. If there is anyone else who thinks I can't do what I say I can who will put up his money, I will make him laugh on the other side of his mouth.

DICK ESTILL, in Bourbon News.

Ott's Capers.

Charles Ott, who resided in this city some years ago and who married Miss America Stevens, of Charleston Bottom, figured in an unenviable light in a sensational affair at Cincinnati a few days since. His home is at Indianapolis, where he has been engaged in the real estate business. Recently, it is said, he converted his property—valued at $40,000—into cash, and left the place, deserting his wife and children. Some days elapsed before he was heard of, and then he was discovered at Cincinnati. He was arrested on a warrant sworn out by his brother-in-law, Richard Stevens, of Covington, but his wife came in from Indianapolis, and the two soon patched up their troubles. The case was then dismissed and the couple left for their home. Ott claims he had no intention of deserting his family, but that he left home in search of health and recreation.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

VANCEBURG, LEWIS COUNTY.

Tobacco is looking well in some parts of the county.

Dr. Drake, of Higginsport, is the guest of Mr. Wm. Dugan.

We have had splendid rains and the early corn crop is assured.

Our fruit men are delivering some very nice peaches this week.

Mrs. Georgia Sessions, of Lexington, is visiting Miss Nettie Stricklett.

County Court convened Monday. There were but few orders made.

Miss Georgia Horsley, of Cincinnati, is visiting Miss Evelyn Tenary.

W. C. Halbert and wife are residing on Kinner this week at Mr. Sam Bates'.

John Little and sister, Gussie, of Madison, Ind., are the guests of Miss Catherine Holderness.

The stock sales were well attended Monday, but there was not a great deal of stock offered for sale.

Miss Irene Halbert, daughter of Hon. George T. Halbert, will be married to-day to Dr. Dunn, of Corinth, Ky.

The trial of Bud Goodwin, Fielding Armstrong and James Clark for disturbing an Alliance meeting resulted in an acquittal of the defendants.

The officers of the new turnpike running down the river from this place have advertised for bids on the first two and one-half miles below this city.

The watermelon crop is not large, but sufficient to supply the home demand. Those raised near here are as delicious as any counsellor could wish.

There will be a good attendance at the Maysville fair from this place. The people here know that it is one of the best fairs held in this country and they always look forward to it with much anticipation.

The Masonic banquet at the St. Charles Hotel Wednesday night, August 12, was a most enjoyable affair and largely attended. Mr. Sam Stevenson, of Adams County, O., a charter member of Burns Chapter, was present and gave an interesting account of its early struggles.

The Alliance had a meeting here Monday and decided to contest Mr. Halbert's election as Representative. It is rumored that they will charge him with bribery, securing the votes of minors, non-residents, etc., etc. They seem determined to put a stop to vote trafficking in this county.

Your readers may look for some "mighty interesting reading," as a noted journalist once said, if the details of the last election are brought out.

The "traders' ring" is getting to be the most interesting feature of sale day. They hang on until night drives them home. One amusing thing occurred during the afternoon. A small boy was placed upon a "razor-back" mule without a saddle and only a halter to guide it, and started up Second street. The mule was so very nervous and traveled so roughly that the boy did not remain on it long. Another and another tried to ride it, but soon gave up the job as a bad one. The animal was one of remote antiquity and about the worst specimen of the mongrel breed yet exhibited here.

GERMANTOWN.

Mrs. Martha Walton, in company with her brother, J. R. Adamsou, is spending the week at Blue Licks.

Mrs. A. J. Whipp, of Covington, is here to spend a season visiting relatives.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

F. S. Verbeck, who represents the type foundry of Messrs. Barnhardt Bros. & Spindler, Chicago, says: "On my return home from a trip I found our little girl sick with summer complaint. I went to a drug store and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We gave her a few doses according to directions. She recovered in a short time and we were well pleased with the medicine." For sale by Power & Reynolds.

The wise merchant is the one who advertises when trade is dull. If he offers bargains he will catch what little trade there is, and when trade livens up he is the one who will reap the harvest.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
